On October 18, 2021, the residential reentry center (RRC) conducted a random search of Mr. Ortiz-Gonzales' cellular telephone. RRC staff discovered multiple pornographic images and videos, including one video that appeared to contain child pornography. Subsequently, his telephone was confiscated by the RRC for further review.

On October 19, 2021, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) special agent Andrew Booth viewed the aforementioned video content and confirmed one of the videos contained child pornography. As of this writing, no charges have been filed.

2 Special Condition #2: You must reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period up to 180 days at the direction of the supervising officer. Your participation in the programs offered by the RRC is limited to employment, education, treatment, and religious services at the direction of the supervising officer. The defendant shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility.

Supporting Evidence: The offender is alleged to have violated special condition number 2, by being terminated from the RRC on October 19, 2021, based on his failure to abide by RRC rules.

On October 14, 2021, the offender's conditions of supervision were reviewed and he signed said conditions acknowledging an understanding of his requirements. Specifically, he was made aware that he must abide by the RRC rules.

As previously noted, on October 18, 2021, Mr. Ortiz-Gonzales' cellular telephone was confiscated by RRC staff after a routine search revealed his telephone contained pornography and suspected child pornography.

On October 19, 2021, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) special agent Andrew Booth reviewed some of the content on the offender's cellular telephone and he confirmed one of the videos contained child pornography.

According to RRC rules, residents are prohibited from having pornographic pictures and/or videos on their cellular telephones.

Based on the information noted above, Mr. Ortiz-Gonzales' public law placement at the RRC has been terminated.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the defendant to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
